Looking Back. Moving Forward.

The close of the year is a time to pause and reflect on what matters most — the people we’ve met, the cases we’ve resolved, and the lives changed along the way. As we close out the year, we want to thank you for being part of The Balams Firm community.

We’re deeply grateful to have been part of your journey and remain committed to being a steady resource whenever you need us. Inside, you’ll find helpful year-end guidance and updates from The Balams Firm, plus a glimpse at how we continue to make a difference in our community.

If someone you know is facing a tough recovery or legal challenge, please pass this newsletter along — these resources are here to help anyone who could use trusted guidance.

Wishing you safety, peace, and good health this season,
Attorney ReShea Balams & The Balams Firm Team

What's New at The Balams Firm?

Legal Tip: Screenshot Your Rideshare Receipt After an Accident

Riding with Uber or Lyft? Save This Tip.

If you're ever injured in an Uber or Lyft accident, take a screenshot of your ride receipt—especially the pickup and drop-off times. It's a simple step that can strengthen your case and prove you were a passenger at the time of the crash.

P.S. This is a great tip to share with your patients, friends, and colleagues—it's one of those small details that's easy to forget in the moment but can make a huge difference in a case.

Case Study Spotlight: Advocating for a Wrongfully Denied Claim

When a devastating chain-reaction crash left our client injured and facing a wrongfully denied claim, the odds seemed stacked against him. With incomplete reports, unavailable witnesses, and memory loss from a concussion, the insurance company tried to shift the blame.

At The Balams Firm, we dug deeper — using crash reconstruction, 911 calls, and body-cam footage to prove he was not at fault.

The result: a settlement for policy limits, giving our client the resources to focus on recovery and rebuilding his future.

Stories like this offer hope to others navigating a similar challenges. If someone you care about has been injured and needs support, sharing this story could make a difference.

New Guide: Understanding Georgia Property Damage Claims

What you don't know about Georgia property damage claims could cost you thousands.

After a car accident in Georgia, you may actually have two claims: one for your injuries and another for your property damage. Too many drivers leave money on the table simply because they don't know their rights.

That's why we created the Georgia Property Damage Claim Guide—a free, quick-read resource with:

- ✓ Step-by-step guidance to handle your claim
- ✓ Common mistakes to avoid
- ✓ Georgia-specific tips you need to know

Whether it's for you or someone you know who's recently been in a crash, this guide is a great starting point to understand your options.

Beyond the Courtroom: The Balams Firm Team

At The Balams Firm, our commitment to making a difference extends well beyond the courtroom — we're proud to be active in the communities we serve.

We're excited to share that our legal assistant, Ebonik Yarde, recently graduated from the Gwinnett County Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA) program!

As a CASA Volunteer, Ebonik serves as a voice for children navigating difficult circumstances — meeting with them, gathering information, and advocating for their needs in court. Her passion ensures every child is heard, supported, and connected to vital resources.
